

Confidentiality and Use of Data

In line with EU GDPR law, all application data has been treated as confidential throughout the judging and shortlisting process by everyone involved.

Conflict of Interest

All applications are anonymised for the judging process and judges take conflict of interest very seriously to ensure the integrity of the process, including signing relevant agreements. If judges recognise an applicant, they are required to state any conflict of interest immediately. Any judge disclosing a conflict of interest is excluded from assessing the specific application and scores are provided by other members of the judging panel only.

KATE SMITH Diplomat

Kate Smith CMG was appointed Her Majesty's Ambassador to the Hellenic Republic in January 2017. Previously she was FCO Director, Americas. Before that she worked as Head of UK Government Relations for Shell. Kate served as Deputy Head of Mission in Tehran (2005–07), following roles in London focussing on Iraq during and in the aftermath of the 2003 conflict. Her FCO experience also includes multilateral work in arms control and disarmament, counter proliferation, and international peace and security. Kate began her diplomatic career overseas in Athens (1991–94), serving as 2nd Secretary Political and Press Attaché. Born near London, she graduated from Oxford University (Politics, Philosophy and Economics) in 1986.

ANASTASIA ANDRITSOU Director, British Council Greece

Anastasia Andritsou studied Electrical Engineering at the National Technical University of Athens and has a Master's degree from the Polytechnic School of Toulouse in France. She worked in the International Co-operation's Department of Intracom for seven years, where she specialised in wireless networks, satellite internet and smart automation technologies for houses, and co-operated with various research centres globally. She holds an Executive MBA from the Athens University of Economics and Business. In 2004 she joined the British Council as a Science Project Manager and implemented a major science communication programme for general audiences and schools. In 2007 she was appointed Head of Partnerships and Programmes, with responsibility for planning and implementing innovative projects in science, art and education through strategic co-operation with partners in Greece and globally. Anastasia featured as one of the Guardian's 50 Voices on what social enterprise means to you. As of April 2018, she is Director of the British Council in Greece, contributing to the education policy agenda in the European region, developing an innovative and forward-thinking skills agenda for youth and underprivileged communities, and strengthening bilateral collaborations between the UK and Greece.

AGGELIKI PAPPA

Founder and CEO, 'i love dyslexia'
President, '3DlexiaCosmos' NPO
Winner of the Social Impact Award Greece
and Social Impact Award European Union
2017–18

Aggeliki Pappa is a visionary educator, influencer, TEDx and keynote speaker, teacher trainer, researcher, human rights activist in the UN and social entrepreneur, supporting #Pedagogy4Love for a New World through 3Dlexia Paradigm for K-12. She is the founder and CEO of 'i love dyslexia' (ILD) EFL School, the first specialised organisation globally focusing on holistic EFL for students with dyslexia and Special Education Needs, and the President of 3DlexiaCosmos NPO supporting Transformative Pedagogy for the Fourth Industrial Revolution. She collaborates with policy makers and education stakeholders worldwide and has received prestigious awards and distinctions.

Dr DIMITRIOS DIMITRIOU
Associate Professor, Department of Economics, Democritus University of Thrace
Chairman of the Board of Directors, Athens
International Airport
Winner of the Professional Achievement
Award Greece 2017–18

Dimitrios Dimitriou holds a Doctorate in Econometric Modelling, an MSc in Airport Management, an MSc in Environmental Management, and a Diploma (equivalent to a four-year BA plus a one-year MSc) in Civil Engineering. His professional experience and activities focus on planning, management and economics in transport, covering the areas of education, research, management and business development. He is Associate Professor in the Department of Economics, Democritus University of Thrace, he has taught at many national and European universities and has published extensively. He has held executive management positions, including Chairman of the Board of Directors, Athens International Airport (2016–present) and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer at the Athens Transport Organisation (2010–12). He is a member of international committees of experts, industry associations and professional bodies.

MARIA TSAKALI
Head Education and Society,
British Council Greece

Maria Tsakali heads the work of the British Council in Greece in education and, for several years, she has led the development of educational services, programmes, partnerships and relationships that support the educational connections between Greece and the UK. She has also served as Head of the Thessaloniki office since 2001 and Honorary Consul of the UK in Thessaloniki since 2007. She graduated in English Language and Literature from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and holds an MBA in Strategic Management from Kingston University.