We process your data for the following purposes:

For the administration of your examination, which includes: a) registration, b) fees payment, c) verification of the candidate's identity, d) report, investigation and appropriate action taken in relation to malpractice and other issues in relation to the examinations, e) running the administrative systems used to support the delivery of the examinations, f) provision to the examination boards and examining bodies of candidate's special arrangements requests, g) submission to the examination boards and examining bodies of passport style photographs, for verification purposes, if applicable, h) access to the British Council online portal(s) to receive exam related information, i) communications with the candidate (or their parents if the candidate is under 18) for examination related matters.

To take into account health data that will allow us to make special arrangements, if requested.

To gather customer feedback about contracted services; to send electronic marketing communications about British Council products, services and activities based on your consent. We shall keep data for these purposes while the data subject does not exercise their wish to object to such processing or requests to be unsubscribed from receiving promotional communications.

What is the legitimate basis for our processing of your data?

The examination administration is legitimised by the performance of a test contract for the provision of services in combination with Law 2251/1994 for the Consumers Protection as in force and codified by the Ministerial Decision No 5338/2018. Not providing any of the requested personal data affects the timely delivery of the services with the required accuracy and efficiency. Processing health or other special category personal data is legitimised by the specified, explicit and legitimate consent of the candidate, or their parent if the candidate is under 18. Communications to the client related with the examination are legitimised by the performance of a contract for the provision of services. Our clients include: adult candidates, parent/guardian of candidates under 18, schools. Customer feedback and marketing communications on similar products and services are legitimised by the performance of a contract and the exemption allowed in article 11 of Law 3471/2006, as currently in force.

Recipients of your personal data

The British Council and examination boards or examining bodies and other affiliated businesses and organisations which are owned by them, for purposes exclusively related to the proper administration of the examinations;
Third parties that represent us (such as venue staff, examiners, invigilators, supervisors) with written contracts as Data Processors subject to the requirements of confidentiality, and only to the extent required for them to perform their specific duties and fulfil the above-mentioned purposes of processing;
Third parties providing services on our behalf related to administrative processes (admissions, registration and information management systems, financial management) with written contracts as Data Processors, subject to the requirements of confidentiality, and only to the extent required for them to perform their specific duties and fulfil the above-mentioned purposes of processing.

Retention period for personal data

The personal data submitted by the candidates or parents/guardians of candidates under 18 will be stored for two (2) years following the end of the examination, and, if deemed necessary, for as long as required in order to potentially resolve any judicial and/or extra-judicial disputes, including mediation, always on the condition that there is no otherwise provided by law.

Your rights over our processing of your personal data:

You have the right to access your personal data; to request the rectification of inaccurate data or, if appropriate, to request their erasure when the data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected. In certain circumstances, you may request the restriction of processing or object to the processing of your data. In these cases, we shall only keep them to defend any claims. You are also entitled to withdrawing your consent at any time for any of the purposes for which you were asked to provide your consent, taking into account that this shall not affect the legitimization of the processing that was based on your consent, prior to your withdrawal. You can exercise your rights by contacting us at IGDisclosures@britishcouncil.org. We have thirty days to address and answer your request, from the date your request is received. Furthermore, you are entitled to file a complaint before the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (www.dpa.gr).
