

Document translation and verification

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

- 1. I would like to pick up my documents from your office in Athens/Thessaloniki. Can this be arranged?

Our face-to-face services have been suspended until further notice. Translation and verification services are offered via ACS Courier or by email (submission only). If there are special circumstances (e.g. announced/formal deadlines which cannot be met otherwise), a face-to-face appointment for submission/delivery of documents might be arranged in our office in Athens. In this case, you need to contact us to make the necessary arrangements.
- 2. Can I receive the translation/verification that I have requested by email?

This option is not currently available. Please refer to the 'How to submit and receive your documents' section on our Document translation and verification webpage.
- 3. Can I send a scanned copy or a photocopy of a document listed in the 'Exemptions' section?

No, an original is required for the types of documents listed in the 'Exemptions' section for verification/translation purposes.
- 4. Can I send a photograph of my document(s) instead of a scanned copy by email?

No, a clear scanned copy of your document(s) is required for verification/translation purposes.
- 5. My transcript issued by a UK institution is a long document, but I only need the page with my marks verified/translated. Can I scan and send this page only?

No, you must scan the full document for verification purposes. As for the translation, all the details will be clarified when we contact you.
