

1. Employees of the British Council along with their relatives (up to second degree of kinship) are not eligible to apply for the British Council IELTS Award 2022.
2. Individuals wishing to apply for the British Council IELTS Award 2022 will need to ensure that they have their own access to the internet. The British Council is not responsible for assisting with access to websites or for providing other technical assistance to any applicant.
3. Applicants bear full responsibility for the complete and correct filling in and submission of their personal information.
4. By submitting an application for the British Council IELTS Award 2022 applicants hereby consent to the publication of their names on British Council websites.
5. Any information in your application (including anything you add at interview or afterwards) should be accurate, not omit any facts that are relevant and should not be misleading. If we find that there are significant errors or omissions in the information you have supplied to us in the course of your application, you will not be offered the award, or the award will be withdrawn or terminated.
6. The selection process will be fair. No applicant will have, or should seek or accept, any unfair advantage. If we find that you have secured an unfair advantage in the selection process, we reserve the right not to offer you an award or withdraw or terminate your award.
7. The decision of the awarding panel is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
8. The British Council IELTS Award 2022 is non-transferable and cannot be used by any person other than the successful applicant.
9. The British Council IELTS Award 2022, up to a maximum of £10,000 or the equivalent in euro or any other currency based on the exchange rate of the relevant currencies on the date of disbursement, will be paid directly to the institution of higher education in Greece or abroad, or to the college or other organisation of post-secondary education or vocational training where the successful applicant will undertake their course of study, subject to the British Council officially confirming their application status with the educational organisation.
10. The British Council reserves the right to withdraw the British Council IELTS Award 2022 at its discretion for a good reason after publishing this alteration appropriately and to the best of its knowledge.
11. The British Council will not bear any responsibility for the loss of the British Council IELTS Award should the organisation be unable to notify the successful applicant due to any issues connected to the email address provided, including, but not limited to, technical issues.
12. The British Council reserves the right to allocate or withdraw the British Council IELTS Award 2022 at its discretion should the successful applicant not respond to the British Council, including failure to provide the British Council with any required information and documentation by 8 July 2022 at the latest. In that case the British Council may grant the said award to the second successful applicant selected by the committee. In the event that after the payment of the tuition fees directly to the educational organisation of the first successful applicant's choice for the 2022–23 academic year there is a remainder of the above award, then the British Council may also grant a part of the remainder to the second selected successful applicant, which will not exceed the sum granted to the former.

13. Commitment: If you receive the British Council IELTS Award 2022, you agree to become an IELTS ambassador to share your study experience with others in talks/seminars and feature in video clip(s) for the promotion of the British Council IELTS Award. You also agree to provide testimonials and photos, which may be published or used by the British Council for IELTS promotion purposes without receiving any remuneration or indemnity.
14. Entry clearance: If for any reason you cannot obtain a visa to study in the desired country of study (if a visa is required), then the British Council may withdraw the offer of the award.
15. The British Council is committed to its Equal Opportunity Policy which helps to ensure equality of opportunity and ensures that there is no unjustified discrimination on the basis of gender including transgender, marital status, sexual orientation, religion and belief, age, disability, political opinion, ethnicity/race, socio-economic background, and values the diversity of individuals of the United Kingdom and the other countries it works in by engaging with diverse individuals, communities and a range of bodies around the world. On this basis we expect compliance with our Equal Opportunity Policy when undertaking any work or participating in any programme or activity of the Council. More information can be found at www.britishcouncil.org/gr/greece-about-us-equal-opportunities-and-diversity.htm. The sole consideration in the selection of the successful applicant will be applicants' ability to meet the eligibility and suitability criteria of the award.
16. The British Council is committed to managing and minimising its environmental impact. Our Environmental Management System has achieved ISO14001, the international standard for environmental management systems, across our UK estate, and using our Environmental Framework Tool we manage our environmental impact in over 100 countries across our overseas network by setting environmental objectives and targets based on the requirements of ISO14001.
17. The British Council warrants that, in relation to all activities in connection with the British Council IELTS Award 2022 comply with all applicable legislation and codes of practice, including, where applicable, all legislation and statutory guidance relevant to the safeguarding and protection of children and with the British Council's Child Protection Policy, as found at <https://www.britishcouncil.org/about-us/how-we-work/policies/child-protection>, as it may be amended from time to time.
18. In the case of applicants under 18 years of age at the time of the submission of application, the consent of their parents/legal guardian is required.
19. The British Council will use the information the applicants provide for the following purposes: a) assessing their eligibility and suitability for the British Council IELTS Award 2022, b) managing the application and selection process, c) forwarding the prize to the relevant educational organisation and d) in general processing their application for the British Council IELTS Award 2022. The legal basis for data processing is the agreement on the terms and conditions and the FAQs of the British Council IELTS Award 2022 (contract).

The British Council will share the applicants' data with Eventsforce Solutions Ltd in the UK providing services related to the online processing of the applicants data for this British Council IELTS Award 2022 with global contract as Data Processor. The British Council will also share the applicants' data and transfer it to the Data Processor's sub-processors, if any, based outside of the European Economic Area, with the appropriate safeguards as established by the European Commission.

The British Council complies with the European and Greek Personal Data Protection legislation. Applicants have the right to ask for a copy of the data that the British Council keeps on them, they also have the right to ask for the correction of any inaccuracies or, where appropriate, to request the deletion of their personal data when they are no longer necessary for the purpose collected by sending an email to IGDisclosures@britishcouncil.org.

Under certain circumstances, they may request the limitation of processing or object to the processing of their information. In that case, the British Council retains the data only for the defence of claims against it. Applicants also have the right to withdraw their consent for whatever purpose their consent was requested at any time, taking into consideration that this does not affect the legitimacy of the process, based on their consent prior to their recall.

If applicants are concerned about the way that the British Council and Eventsforce Solutions Ltd., London, UK use their personal data, they have also the right to submit a complaint to the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (www.dpa.gr).

20. For more information they can refer to the privacy section of the British Council's website www.britishcouncil.org/privacy-cookies/data-protection or communicate with British Council in Greece. All applicants' information will be deleted after a period of two years upon the end of the Award.
21. Participation in the British Council IELTS Award 2022 programme presupposes and entails unreserved acceptance of all the terms and conditions presented hereto.
22. The terms and conditions for participation in the British Council IELTS Award 2022 programme have been submitted to Stamatis S. Katapodis, Athens Notary Public, 3 Nikitara Street, Athens. Any applicant or third party who wishes to obtain a true copy of the terms from the aforementioned notary public can do so at their own expense.
23. The present terms and conditions as well as the FAQs are all considered part of the British Council IELTS Award 2022 programme and shall have effect as if set out in full in the body of this. Any reference to the British Council IELTS Award 2022 programme includes the Terms and Conditions and the FAQs.
24. All documents are written in English and Greek. In cases where issues of the interpretation of the terms arise, the English version of the text supersedes all others.