

IMAGINE PEACE YOUTH CAMP

Aug 27th - Sept 2nd 2017 • Ancient Olympia, Greece

Are you a youth leader?

Do you want to develop leadership and advocacy skills for Olympism and social inclusion through sport?

Imagine Peace Youth Camp is an activity-based learning programme in which participants share experiences, use critical thinking skills and a variety of digital and traditional media to explore ways of promoting understanding and respecting diversity.

Visit the IOTC website on

www.olympictruce.org
for video and photos of our previous camps

The camp is organised around the following strands:

- Olympism as a philosophy of life
- Effective communication and promoting understanding and dialogue among young people
- Sport as a tool in shaping communities positively.

It is held at the facilities of the International Olympic Academy near the Ancient Olympia archaeological site, where the Olympic Games and the idea and the philosophy of life of Olympism were born and developed.

Assisted places

will be offered to applicants meeting special requirements. The assisted place scheme covers all programme costs within Greece (excluding airfare).
